

That's no PR

(It's an impromptu information sheet)

This is the first of our 'mini-PRs' to inform you about developments in the final months before the convention, especially things you might need to know about, prepare for, or sign up in advance for.

Launch and Landing (beginnings and endings)

Those making travel arrangements may wish to note that the convention programme will run from approximately 10 am on Saturday 28th May until about 6 pm on Sunday 29th May 2016. However...

During the Final Countdown (Jaine Fenn signing at Waterstones)

...Jaine Fenn will be giving a reading at a special event hosted by Waterstones, 153-157 Sauchiehall Street, Glasgow, on Friday 27th May 2016 at 6:30 pm.

In-flight entertainment (programme update)

- Please consider bringing along a poem for our Poetry Circle. It can be either an original work or just a favourite you'd like to share.
- Authors! We hope to have a Reading Slam on Saturday evening - a chance for authors known and unknown to give short readings to showcase their work. We want to gauge potential interest in advance and so, if you'd like to take part, please email programme@satellite5.org.uk
- The theme of our Saturday night disco is Out of this World! We hope many of you will take up the challenge of devising a costume to make it a truly intergalactic event.
- Hall costumes are also welcome at Satellite 5, and there will be a Hall Costume Competition on Saturday.

Extra-vehicular activity (Couch to Satellite 5K)

Satellite 5 is offering you a unique opportunity to work together through either the NHS Choices Couch to 5K or the BUPA Walk to Run programme, then celebrate their achievement with a fun, fannish group EVA (a nice steady jog or brisk walk NOT a 30-minute 5K!) during the convention. The programmes take at least 8 weeks to complete, so you need to begin well in advance of the Con.
